ABOUT NEW YORK JUNIOR TENNIS LEAGUE

Since 1970, NYJTL has provided comprehensive school and community tennis and educational programs throughout New York's five boroughs, serving more than 100,000 youth from ages 6-18 each year.

The Arthur Ashe Educational Guidance Program (AAEGP) offers free resources to NYJTL participants from starting in elementary school through acceptance into college. Individuals and families receive free educational counseling, visit colleges, and are assisted with the financial aid process leading to college scholarships.

NYJTL is the largest tennis and educational-themed community organization in the nation and is celebrating its 40th Anniversary in 2010.

For more information about Arthur Ashe Educational Guidance Program services and scholarship opportunities, visit www.nyjtl.org.

FREE AAEGP RESOURCES

Workshops & COUNSELING

Students receive guidance as they transition from elementary school through high school. Families are assisted with the college admissions, NCAA, and financial aid processes.

Essay & Art CONTEST

Arthur Ashe Essay & Art Contest invites children to research Arthur Ashe's life, work, and ideals. Winners receive US Open tickets and are guests on Arthur Ashe Kids' Day.

Character Counts CURRICULUM

AAEGP works with staff to deliver this nationally-renowned character education program that emphasizes trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and citizenship.

Scholarship OPPORTUNITIES

Monetary resources for high school seniors available through numerous NYJTL and USTA-sponsored scholarships.

Specialized RESOURCES

Delivers guidance services for middle and high school students including SAT and SHSAT prep courses, math and English language tutoring, job readiness training, college visits and more.

Summer Reading CLUBS

Participants enjoy reading, writing, group discussions, trophies, and keep as many free books as they can read.
